Holyoke Mass.,

Jan. 29 1923.

The American Numismatic Society,
Broadway, between 155th and 156th St's.

Mr. Howland Wood,
Acting Secretary.

Dear Sir:

Your favor of Jan. 11th received, Thanks for the application blank, but I fear that I too much of an amateur to forward it at present.

Althou I have been collecting for some few years it is only recently that I have had the time to study the interesting subject, last year I was fortunate in securing a complete file of The Numismatist, also a few volumes of the A.J.of N. and seeing that you have been connected with them for so long, I have been intending to write you for information.

The leaf-let you inclosed answers the first question, as to when the Journal was first published, the others are; can back numbers be obtained now, and at what price?. is it now published by The A.N.S ?. if so, is the subscription price covered by the yearly dues?.

Thanking you in advance for the information.

Yours most truly.

Mr. Howland Wood

Dear Sir: Kindly inform me
if parts 1 & 2 complete the American Journal for 1909.

Also what was the last year the journal was published?

Thanking you for the information

Mr. E. R. Noyes,
2690 Hazelwood,
Detroit, Mich.

Dear Sir:

The various numbers of the American Journal of Numismatics for the year 1919 ended the long life of this publication. It was volume 53, the first part coming out in 1920 and consisting of the State Coinage of Connecticut, Vermont and Massachusetts. Part two consisted of Myriandros and Alexandria Katisson by E. T. Newell, also issued in 1920 and part three, Lampsakos: The Gold Staters, Silver and Bronze Coinages by Agnes Baldwin 1924.

These three parts cost $3.00 each, or the three bought at one time, that is the volume, $5.00.

Very truly yours,

Curator
